The Consignor is the artist and owner of all goods consigned to Art On Audrey, and has the legal right to enter into this consignment agreement; and the goods are salable and/or free and clear of liens and other claims.

Art On Audrey retains the right to accept or decline any item for consignment at their sole discretion and retains the right to display items for sale as they see fit.

During the first 30 days, Art On Audrey will sell the item at the initial price. After 30 days, if the item is not sold the item price will drop by 10% or more of the original price. At 60 days the initial consignment period will expire.

All merchandise that is not sold at the end of the consignment time frame will be evaluated by both Art On Audrey and the consignor. Items without a formal extended agreement must be picked up within 10 days at the end of the consignment agreement or will become the property of Art On Audrey and maybe donated or disposed at our discretion.

Art On Audrey shall submit a check for 50% of the final sale proceeds to the consignor within 15 days of receipt of sale. The seller and consignor do hereby agree to the terms set forth above by their signatures found below.

This contract shall be governed by the laws of the state of New York in Nassau County and any applicable Federal Law.

I agree to the above terms, I understand the content of the terms and want to become an Art On Audrey consignor.
